

The study of Press media & Mass media in India by its very nature involves several dimensions of analysis. Journalism and Mass media have acted as fourth pillar of democracy and as a search light of social, political and cultural life in India for nearly one and half centuries. India's recognized registered newspapers numbering 100,000 & 230 news channels till 2018. Finally this course include a time dimensions covering a period of nearly 150 years, colonial, political, and a socio-cultural dimensions that covers a wide.

Duration : One week, Course starts from 26th Dec. 2022. Time 10.30AM to 4.30PM (Approx).

Eligibility: Passed 2nd Semester in Arts. The candidates should have some basic ideas regarding journalism, mass-media and reporting.

Admission: Application form will be Issued from the Department of History, Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya. Filled in Application shall be submitted at the Department with in 18th December, 2022. Admission shall be first come first serve basis.

Course fee : The course is free to enroll and learn.

Evaluation : Internal Assessment 40% & Field work 60%. Total Marks: 100
Passing Marks: 40.

Add-On Program
Press Media & Mass Media

Department of History,
Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya

Learning Outcome:

- At end of the course, student will be Able to Understand and realize the history and problems of Journalism, mass media & others.
- Understand and classify the role of news papers, Internet , Social media and virtual reporting from villages and cities in India.
- Understand the necessity of real reporting , editing and news writing.

Dr. Abdul Motin, Principal

Prof. Sanchita Mukherjee, HOD, Dept. of History

Dr. Ananta Chackrabarti, Coordinator

The study of Urbanization in India by its very nature involves several dimensions of analysis. Town and cities have acted as focal points in the cultural landscape of India for nearly five millennia. India's recognized urban settlements numbering 7935 as per 2011 Census. Finally this course include a time dimensions covering a period of nearly 5,000 years, and ecological, political and a socio-cultural dimensions that covers a wide spectrum of people of diverse ethnic origins.

Duration : One week, Course starts from 22nd May 2023. Time 10.30AM to 4.30PM (Approx).

Eligibility: Passed 4th Semester in Arts. The candidates should have some basic ideas regarding urbanization and town planning.

Admission: Application form will be Issued from the Department of History, Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya. Filled in Application shall be submitted at the Department with in 18th May, 2023. Admission shall be first come first serve basis.

Course fee : The course is free to enroll and learn.

Evaluation : Internal Assessment 40% & Field work 60%. Total Marks: 100 Passing Marks: 40.

Add-On Program

Urbanization & Town Planning

Department of History,

Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya

Learning Outcome:

- At end of the course, student will be Able to Understand and realize the problems of infrastructure and urban planning.
- Understand and classify the spatial allocation of amenities , insufficiency of water and electricity in maximum towns and cities in India.
- Understand the necessity of real Town planning and development.

Dr. Abdul Motin, Principal

Prof. Sanchita Mukherjee, HOD, Dept. of History

Dr. Ananta Chackrabarti, Coordinator