

Add-On- Program

“Changing Nature of Indian State”

Department of Political Science,
Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya, Tamluk -721636

- Duration: 12 days, Course starts from 29th May, 2023.
- Eligibility & Admission: Existing Students of Sem-IV, Sem-IV (2022-23), Interested Students are instructed to enrol in the Dept/H.O.D latest by 20.05.2023 (2.00P.M)
- Evaluation & Certification: After completion of the session on lecture and interaction, an evaluation (through viva and written) will be undertaken. Total Marks: 50 (Viva: 10, Written: 40) Finally, a certificate of the completion of the Course will be issued to each participant.
- Course Objectives: In the additional learning programme for the session of 2022-23 the area of study has been selected by the dept is “The Changing nature of Indian State”. The entire Course will be studied with an eye to enlighten the students of the discipline to understand Indian Politics in different period with special features, particularly the goals and pattern of the behaviour of the respective ruling elites as well as the objective condition of the period. Empirical study and structural functional approach will be resorted, so that the beginners feel pleasure to pursue further study.

Dr. Abdul
Motin
Principal

Prof. Susanta Kumar
Sadhukhan
HOD, Dept. of Political Science