

The study of Journalism & Mass Communication in India by its very nature involves several dimensions of analysis. Journalism and Mass communication have acted as a fourth pillar of democracy and as a search light of social, political and cultural life in India for nearly one and half centuries. India's recognized registered newspapers numbering 100,000 & 230 news channels still in 2018. Finally this course includes a time dimension covering a period of nearly 150 years, colonial, political, and a socio-cultural dimension.

Duration : One week, Course starts from 18th May, 2024. Time 10.30 AM to 4.30 PM (Approx).

Eligibility: Passed 2nd Semester in Arts. The candidates should have some basic ideas regarding journalism, mass media and reporting.

Admission: Application form will be issued from the Department of History, Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya. Filled in Application shall be submitted at the Department with in 10th May, 2024. Admission shall be first come first serve basis.

Course fee : The course is free to enroll and learn.

Evaluation: Internal Assessment 40% & Field work 60%. Total Marks: 100
Passing Marks: 40.

Add-On Program
Journalism & Mass
Communication
Department of History,
Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya

Learning Outcome:

- At the end of the course, the student will be able to understand and realize the history and problems of Journalism, mass media & others.
- Understand and classify the role of newspapers, Internet, Social media and virtual reporting from villages and cities in India.
- Understand the necessity of real reporting, editing and news writing.

Dr. Abdul Motin, Principal

Prof. Sanchita Mukherjee, HOD, Dept. of History

Dr. Ananta Chackrabarti, Coordinator