Course objectives :

Decades have come and gone but the plight of women is not likely to change . Time has helplessly watched women suffering in the form of discrimination , suppression and exploitations . In our country , sexual, physical or emotional violence as well as crime against women is a serious form of exploitation that needs to be prevented in the nation. Infact , since the dawn of civilization, women are victims of vast discrimination and male chauvinism and that is why they are prone to crimes like rape , eve-teasing, sexual harassment, female infanticide, dowry death, domestic violence , child marriage, acid throwing, trafficking etc. At present , crime against women is rising at an alarming rate . Despite the existence of numerous Laws and Acts to safeguard the women, but the authorities failed to curb high level of crimes against women .

The prime objectives of this course are as follows :

- To sensitize our students who are interested to women studies.
- To provide students the knowledge in the field of violence and crime
- To inculcate in our students regarding recent incidences, forms , against women .factors and severity of the crimes against women
- To focus and aware the students regarding existing Laws and Acts as well as major IPC provisions which will help them to prevent crimes against women
- To highlight the need for multi sectoral reforms and efforts to minimize the crime against women with the help of stakeholders of the society.

Course Outcome:

After completing the course the students will be able to :

- aware additional information and knowledge about the respective subject
- learn about the recent incidences of rising crimes against women
- learn about the safety and security of women in Indian society
- understand the various aspects of the violation of women’s human rights .
- acquire the knowledge and be aware about the different Laws and Acts implemented by the Government to safeguard and protect them from violence and crime and will help them to get justice and also spread as well as aware other women’s who can not be present at the programme.
